AMENDED FORMAL COMPLAINT OF SBG MANAGEMENT SERVICES, INC.
AGAINST PHILADELPHIA GAS WORKS

I. INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to 52 Pa. Code § 5.91, 66 Pa. C.S. § 701 and 52 Pa. Code § 5.22, and by and through its attorneys, Scott H. DeBroff, Esq., and Alicia R. Duke, Esq., of Rhoads & Sinon LLP, SBG Management Services, Inc. (“SBG”) submits this Amended Formal Complaint against Philadelphia Gas Works (“PGW”) as follows:

SBG originally filed a Complaint against PGW on or about May 11, 2012. Since this initial filing, SBG has obtained new counsel. After consultation with Administrative Law Judge Vero and counsel for PGW, SBG was permitted leave to file this Amended Complaint.

In support of its Amended Complaint, Complainant avers as follows:

II. THE PARTIES

1. The initial Complaint listed both SBG Management Services, Inc., and Colonial Garden Realty Co., L.P. (“Colonial Garden”) as Complainants. Colonial Garden is the owner of the apartment complex located at 5427 – 29 Wayne Avenue, Philadelphia, PA, 19144 (the “Complex”). Colonial Garden, as owner and landlord, leases the Complex’s apartments to residential tenants. SBG acts as an agent for Colonial Garden and manages the Complex, which is comprised of 70 multi-family, residential rental units. As the agent for Colonial Garden, SBG is authorized to engage in certain activities and to assume and execute certain responsibilities for and at the Complex, including, but not limited to: 1) serving as the property manager; 2) receiving, reviewing, and paying all bills, charges, and expenses; and 3) managing the operations of and the affairs for the Complex. SBG's responsibilities as an agent for Colonial Garden include, but are not limited to, receiving and reviewing PGW gas bills and submitting payment on Colonial Garden's behalf on all accounts where Colonial Garden and/or SBG is listed as the customer of record or the Complex is ultimately responsible for satisfaction or payment of the debt for such bills and charges. SBG's mailing address is P.O. Box 549, Abington, PA 19001. Please see the attached letter in Exhibit A, which gives Phil Pulley, the Director of Operations for SBG, the authority to commence legal actions against PGW for all accounting and billing disputes.

The Commission has previously allowed standing for a party who is not the named customer of record where evidence can be established that the complainant is an "authorized agent" for the customer(s) of record and therefore has standing in a "representational capacity" to assert the interests of the customers and to participate in a proceeding at the Commission level. When allowing standing in these cases the Commission has noted the judicial trend toward a less strict standard for representational standing, where it determined that a party asserting representational standing should not be denied such status solely because the party itself does not have an interest as a customer, competitor or consumer. Examples of such cases include PA PUC, Office of Consumer Advocate, and Interstate Marketing, Inc. v. Pennsylvania Gas & Water Company 1995 Pa. PUC LEXIS 29 (PA PUC 1995) affirmed by Interstate Gas Mktg. v. Pennsylvania PUC, 679 A.2d 1349 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 1996); Township of Findlay v. Duquesne Light Company and West Penn Power Company 1996 Pa. PUC LEXIS 177 (PA PUC 1996) and

Pennsylvania Natural Gas Association v. T.W. Phillips Gas & Oil Co. 1991 Pa. PUC Lexis 1995

(PA PUC 1995). In Interstate Gas Marketing, at page 7, the Pennsylvania Commonwealth Court held:

Like the PUC, we [Commonwealth Court] believe that IGM, as agent for its customers, had an interest in PG&W's proposal and, thus, has standing to file its formal complaint with the PUC.... Here, IGM alleges that the proposed ... rate will cause harm to certain PG&W customers represented by IGM. Thus IGM is a 'party' with a direct interest in the case. (See also Interstate, at pages 9-10).

In this case, the Commonwealth Ct. is addressing the agent's right to file a formal complaint and appeal.

Lastly, the relationship between SBG as an agent for the principal Colonial Garden squarely fits into the definition and explanation of a principal, an agent and an agency relationship as set forth in the Restatement of Law, Second, Agency.¹

2. The Respondent is Philadelphia Gas Works, which provides gas service to customers such as Complainant who are located in and around the City of Philadelphia and which is regulated by the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission with respect to such service.

§ 1 Agency; Principal; Agent

(1) Agency is the fiduciary relation which results from the manifestation of consent by one person to another that the other shall act on his behalf and subject to his control, and consent by the other so to act.

(2) The one for whom action is to be taken is the principal.

(3) The one who is to act is the agent.

At Comment on Subsection (2): (d) of the Restat 2d of Agency, § 1, the following is stated:

d. "Principal" is a word used to describe a person who has authorized another to act on his account and subject to his control. It includes, therefore, both a person who has directed another to act on his account in business dealings or to represent him in hearings or proceedings, but who has no control or right of control over the other's physical conduct, and also a person who employs another to act in his affairs, having such control or right to control over his conduct that the other is termed a servant, whether or not he renders merely manual service. The word "master" as defined in Section 2 is not used in contrast to the word "principal," but is included within it. Thus, the owner of a business is a principal not only with regard to brokers who, as to their physical acts, are independent of his supervision, but also with regard to salesmen who conduct business transactions under supervision as to such conduct and who therefore come within the definition of servant. Likewise, the owner of a house is the principal as well as the master of the janitors whom he employs and whose jobs are confined to the performance of manual acts on the premises under the owner's supervision. The word "principal," therefore, includes both persons who are masters and persons who are principals but not masters. (Emphasis added).

III. BACKGROUND AND MATTERS COMPLAINED OF

3. SBG started contacting PGW about the accounts associated with the Complex listed above in or about 2001. Since then, SBG contacted and requested on numerous occasions that PGW review the bills associated with the accounts on these properties. On October 3, 2012, and November 16, 2012, SBG sent discovery requests to PGW. In November 2012, SBG has begun to receive some of the information necessary to determine the accuracy of the bills and the amounts still owed on the accounts where SBG and/or Colonial Garden is the customer of record.

4. Attached in Exhibit B to this Complaint, is a spreadsheet outlining the accounts in question on which SBG has received information as of November 26, 2012. SBG is currently in conversations with counsel for PGW and anticipates receiving more information through discovery on other accounts associated with the Complex in the near future.

5. Since discovery is ongoing, SBG reserves its right to update the attached Exhibit B with information on further disputed accounts as it receives such information from PGW.

6. The spreadsheet of accounts in Exhibit B has a legend outlining the specific issues for each particular account. The issues with the accounts listed in Exhibit B, may include, but are not limited to, those listed below:

A) SBG disputes the accuracy of the amounts PGW claims to be outstanding because they appear to be based on: i) inaccurate actual meter reads; ii) inaccurate estimated meter reads; iii) wrongful and inaccurate transfer of liabilities from one account to another account; iv) failure to accurately and properly credit the accounts for prior payments and to reduce or to eliminate the allegedly incorrect resulting "outstanding" balances; and v) inaccurate and wrongful billing and collection practices, including, but not limited to, sending bills to and trying to collect money from the wrong party;

B) SBG also disputes the calculation and imposition of interest and penalties assessed by PGW on the accounts PGW claimed to be delinquent.

7. SBG's significant concerns with regard to accuracy of billing, validity of the meter readings and or estimates and the calculation of interest and penalties assessed by PGW do, as indicated by Administrative Law Judge Vero in her Order dated July 17, 2012, on Respondent's Preliminary Objections on page 12, fall squarely within the purview of the Commission's jurisdiction and are rightfully brought before the Commission for adjudication.

8. If PGW had responded initially to SBG's attempts to gather information about the accounts, these billing disputes could have been resolved in an appropriate, reasonable, and expeditious manner, which may have ultimately resulted in no alleged delinquent accounts or in claims of alleged delinquent accounts with substantially smaller balances.

IV. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, for the reasons set forth herein, Complainant SBG Management Services, Inc., respectfully requests that the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission sustain this Amended Complaint, and:

1. Require PGW to supply all the necessary information in order to determine the accuracy of any and all amounts it claims are owed on the disputed accounts where SBG and/or Colonial Garden is the customer of record;

2. Require PGW to test the meters on the accounts in question in order to determine that Complainant is being accurately billed;

3. Require PGW to correct the accounts listed in this Amended Complaint that are determined to be inaccurate and refund the amount to SBG that is determined to be overpaid; and

4. Grant such other and further relief as the Commission determines to be in the public interest.

Dated: December 10, 2012

Footnotes:

1. This is a preliminary estimate based on discovery provided by PGW to date. SBG is still waiting for additional discovery from PGW, as a result, the disputed amounts are subject to change.

2. In order to properly reconcile the accounts for forensic accounting purposes, SBG has requested through discovery statements of account from origination to ensure accuracy of the account balances in dispute. These accounting records also support SBG's assertion that PGW has a history of miscalculations and or errors in their accounting statements.

3. Please refer to the SBG Accounting Dispute Legend.
