Dear Madam Secretary:

Re: Applications of Canyon Country Cabs, LLC
No. A-2015-2471524

As your records will indicate, I have been retained to represent Applicant, Canyon Country Cabs, LLC, in the above referred to application proceeding. My Pennsylvania Supreme Court Identification Number is 29681.

On May 7, 2015, I eFiled with your Commission, on behalf of Applicant herein, an original Notice of Appearance and Motion and Preliminary Objections of Applicant To Strike Protest of Tropical Tanning & Beauty Salon, Inc. t/a Arrive N Style Limousine . It has been brought to my attention that the Certificate of Service on that pleading incorrectly stated "Burgit City Taxi, Inc." as the served Protestant party, rather than "Tropical Tanning & Beauty Salon, Inc. t/a Arrive N Style Limousine Service" as the served Protestant party. However, my records indicate that a true copy of the Notice of Appearance and Motion and Preliminary Objections of Applicant To Strike Protest of Tropical Tanning & Beauty Salon, Inc. t/a Arrive N Style Limousine Service was, in fact, forwarded via First Class Mail to Tropical Tanning & Beauty Salon, Inc. t/a Arrive N Style Limousine. I apologize for any inconvenience my inadvertent error may have caused any party.

Accordingly, attached hereto, for eFiling with your Commission, find Corrected and Amended Certificate of Service to the Motion and Preliminary Objections of Applicant To Strike Protest of Tropical Tanning & Beauty Salon, Inc. t/a Arrive N Style Limousine.

If you have any questions relative to any of the above or attached, or require additional information, do not hesitate to contact me. Your courtesies and considerations are appreciated.

Respectfully yours,

Kenneth A. Olsen
