Re: Compliance - Notice to Customers of WGL Energy Services, Inc. Name Change
Docket Nos. A-110158 and A-2010-2176410

Dear Secretary Chiavetta:

By two Secretarial Letters both dated July 8, 2015 sent to and received by the undersigned, the Commission approved the name change from Washington Gas Energy Services, Inc. to WGL Energy Services, Inc. as requested on January 15, 2015. WGL Energy Services, Inc. further received new Electric Generation Supplier (EGS) and Natural Gas Supplier (NGS) licenses from the Secretary's Bureau reflecting the name change.

As directed by the Secretarial Letters, enclosed with this filing is a copy of the letter that WGL Energy Services, Inc. sent to all of its natural gas supply and electricity supply customers in Pennsylvania notifying them of the name change to WGL Energy Services, Inc.

Please direct any questions concerning this filing to the undersigned or to WGL Energy Services, Inc.'s counsel, Michael Gruin, Esquire at (717)-255-7365.

Respectfully Submitted,

Telemac N. Chryssikos
Attorney

THEM OF NAME CHANGE TO WGL ENERGY SERVICES, INC.

Information about your energy supplier.
No action required.

Dear Customer,

We are transforming to better serve you...

Our name change is just the beginning. On January 15, 2015, we are launching WGL Energy, an entity that delivers a full ecosystem of energy offerings including natural gas, electricity, green power, carbon reduction, distributed generation and energy efficiency provided by WGL Energy Services, Inc. (formerly Washington Gas Energy Services, Inc.) and WGL Energy Systems, Inc. (formerly Washington Gas Energy Systems, Inc.). Our calling as WGL Energy is to make energy surprisingly easy for everyone we serve.

Why this change benefits you...

As a WGL Energy customer, you'll continue to have low prices and budget-friendly plans for natural gas and electricity, along with options for adding wind power and carbon offsets. You'll soon see additional features including:

- Tools that will help you understand all of your options for saving money, conserving energy and protecting the environment.
- New renewable energy solutions, such as solar power for your home or business.

What you'll need to do...

- Nothing changes with the terms and conditions of your current contract, so no action is required.
- While our new name will appear as the supplier on your bill, you'll pay your utility bill as you always have.
- When new products and services become available, we'll inform you via renewal correspondence, email and on our website. If you'd like to receive updates by email, please provide or update your email address at: www.WGLEnergy.com/myemail.

As part of the WGL family of companies, we provide Energy Answers, so Ask Us. For more details, speak to a WGL Energy Customer Care Specialist at 1-888.884.9437, weekdays, 7 a.m. – 7 p.m. and Saturdays, 8 a.m. – 4 p.m. Visit www.WGLEnergy.com for a preview.

We thank you for your business, and look forward to bringing you a complete portfolio of energy solutions.

Sincerely,

Gautam Chandra
