Re: Linde Energy Services, Inc. (now, Messer Energy Services, Inc.) – EGS Application Update
Regarding Upstream Ownership and Name Changes; Docket No. A-110162

Dear Secretary Chiavetta,

On March 29, 2019, Messer Energy Services, Inc. (“MESI”) (formerly, Linde Energy Services, Inc. (“LESI”)), filed a notice in the above-referenced docket with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission (“PUC” or “Commission”). The notice informed the Commission of certain changes in the information provided in MESI’s (formerly, LESI’s) application for an electric generation supplier (“EGS”) license. Specifically, MESI’s notice indicated that there had been recent changes in upstream ownership involving MESI and a related name change.

Shortly after submitting its notice, MESI received correspondence from the PUC indicating that the Commission considered MESI’s notice to be an Application for Name Change. Accordingly, the PUC requested that MESI supplement its filing with a $350.00 application fee. Pursuant to the Commission’s directive, enclosed please find a check for $350.00.

Please contact the undersigned if you have any questions. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

McNEES WALLACE & NURICK LLC
