

Covid-19 has made it impossible for many to pay utility bills. Studies show that shut off moratoriums prevent new covid cases, and so for the safety of our region, I believe we must continue with shut off moratoriums, and should plan for forgiveness and/or equitable processes for repayment.